

SYMPHONYA

Emerging Issues in Management

International Workshop

"Ethics in Research: A New Global Perspective"

PROGRAMME

The International Workshop "Ethics in Research: A New Global Perspective" is by invitation only and will be held on Thursday 27th October 2022 in Rome at the Unicusano University (in face-to-face session, up to 30 accredited participants) and online via the Unicusano platform (up to 300 invited participants, with a personal online password) (GMT – Italy).

Please, indicate the option to participate and send the form to symphonya@unicusano.it

Participation is free of charge. Symphonya will confirm your registration and indicate the modality of your participation either in person or on-line.

10.00 Fabio Fortuna - Niccolò Cusano University - Rector's Welcome

10.00 – 11.00 'The Future of Research Quality' Chair: R. Edward Freeman

Paolo Cherubini - University of Milano - Bicocca, Italy – “New Trends in the EU Policies for University Evaluation”

Nicola Bellini - Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies, Italy – “The Distance between Theory and Practice. How to Bridge the Gaps”

Timothy Devinney - University of Manchester, UK – “Why Practice Needs More Theory and Evidence”

11.00 – 11.45 Keynote speech by R. Edward Freeman - University of Virginia, US - “Some Suggestions for Improving Business School Research”

11.50 – 13.00 Open Discussion (in presence & on line)

Break Time/Lunch

15.00 – 16.00 'The Future of Research Ethics' Chair: R. Edward Freeman

Mario Risso - Niccolò Cusano University, Italy – “The Multi-Author Approach”

Fang Lee Cooke - Monash University, Australia – “Research(er) Ethics in HRM: towards a more Inclusive and Pluralistic Approach?”

Carlo Maria Gallucci Calabrese – ESADE – Ramon LLULL University, Spain – “Social Responsibility and Ethics in University Teaching and Research”

Gian Luca Gregori - Polytechnic University of Marche, Italy – “Young Researchers and Ethics in Research. Some Initial Reflections”

Silvio M. Brondoni - Niccolò Cusano University, Italy – “The Primacy of School of Thought for the Global Progress of Management Studies”

16.00 – 17.00 Open Discussion (in presence & on line)